

1

A teacher is explaining the differences between accuracy and precision to her students. She draws the following diagram, which shows different degrees of accuracy and precision. The circles represent targets A, B, C and D and the dots represent arrows hitting the targets.

Explain how targets A, B, C and D represent differing degrees of accuracy and precision.

(4)